

Did'ja Know?

The "winged creatures" in the story are angels! Angels were God's messengers. In fact, that's where the word "angel" comes from — in Greek, "angelos" means messenger.

One type of messenger (angel) is called a seraph. When there's a group of them, they're called seraphim. Color the angels!

Isaiah 6:1-8

One day, Isaiah had a vision. He saw himself standing in a shining temple, and saw God sitting on a throne, with winged creatures worshiping God.

Isaiah cried, "I am a terrible person! Why is God showing this to me?"

One of the creatures flew to Isaiah. "Don't say you're a terrible person. God can take away all the bad things you've ever done." The creature touched Isaiah's lips with a hot coal. "See? Just like that."

"Wow!" Isaigh said. The coal didn't burn him though.

Then God called out, "Who will I send into the world to speak my words to the people?"

Isaiah was so happy that God forgave him, he shouted, "Me! I'm right here! Send me!"

After the vision, Isaiah spent his life speaking God's words to the people.

A Wision From God

Like a dream, except you see it while you're still awake. God speaks to prophets in visions.
