Acts 16

Paul and Silas traveled around telling people about Jesus. Sometimes it got them into trouble. In one town, a crowd attacked them and they ended up in jail. In their cell, they prayed and sang songs to God and the other prisoners listened.

Then in the middle of the night, there was an earthquake and all the jail cells opened up. When the jailer woke up and saw the doors open, he panicked. He was going to be in so much trouble!

But Paul called out, "It's okay. We all stayed in our cells. We didn't want to get you in trouble. That's the way of Jesus."

The jailer was so amazed that he took Paul and Silas to his own house, took care of their wounds, and became a follower of Jesus himself!
