

Life in Christ, Vol. 68 Issue 3 March, 2024

Beloved of Christ Lutheran-

As all of you have likely noticed, I am a redhead. However, maybe not all of you are aware of the level of excitement I reach when I meet and encounter other redheads.

Redheads are rare things to behold when you live in Southern California. We have lots of blondes and brunettes, but not many redheads. When I was younger and would visit my Dad in Minnesota, I began to realize that I was not alone with my red locks as it seemed like every other checkout girl at the grocery store had strawberry-blonde or red hair. I had mixed feelings about this. I liked being unique and not looking like everyone else, but there were times where I wished that others besides my family might sport this beautiful color and make me feel not quite so different.

According to the internet, Redhead Appreciation Day is held on September 23rd of every year. Now I wouldn't say we celebrate this high holy day, but rather we observe it year-round. However, it seems the day doesn't pass without one of my Facebook friends tagging me in a shared appreciation post (like Facebook's version of the chain letters of my childhood). It often offers fun facts about redheads. Other times it links to celebrations of redheads that are hosted near and far. And still others attempt to squash some myths about redheads, particularly one that states that redheads will become extinct in the next century.

But I can't complain too much, because it is in one such share, this time offline, that I heard about the book, "Little Redheads Across America." The book was created by a parent who was amazed at the attention her redheaded son received because of his hair and who wanted to provide her son and other "red-haired kids with the sense that they're not alone, even though it sometimes feels that way." I cannot imagine she knew how much this book would mean to "bigger kids" like me too.

I appreciate books like "Little Redheads Across America" very much because they help us to normalize who we are and empower us to be who we are just the way we are. Now imagine if we had books like "Little Bald Men Across America" or a "Little Gray-haired Ladies Across America" gracing our bookshelves? Maybe you'd add another to this list? Although these books don't exist (yet!), we all can move forward as if they did, confident that we are not alone and can be encouraged in our living, as we are united as God's children here to do the work of the Lord just the way we are.

Our book could be called, "Little Christians Across America." Although we do not all look the same, feel the same, think the same, etc., we are God's beloved children and are equally called to share Christ's love with the world. May it be so in us.

Preschool News

February flew by! We had a wonderful Special Person Day where just about every child had a Special Person! For Valentine's Day, the classrooms each had their own parties to celebrate. We had a special Wednesday Chapel to celebrate Ash Wednesday. Parents were invited to join and receive ashes as well. Music Makers were invited to sing on Sunday, February 11th and we had a special ribbon cutting ceremony and blessing of our new playground after Church. We are so thankful for the generosity of all of our donors over the last 5 years that helped to make this possible!

In the month of March, we will have our auction, "A Night of Imagination" which will be on Friday, March 8th at 6pm at The Grand Event Center. Feel free to dress up and have a fun night out while supporting CLP! We will have silent auction items, various raffle games and a wine pull. We will have small bites, a candy table and chocolate fountain. We will conclude the event with our 50/50 raffle, live auction, and 'fund an item' to raise money for a new stove/oven for the kitchen. Tickets are $65 each and include a drink ticket good for one glass of wine, beer or well drink or 2 soft drinks. The deadline to purchase tickets is February 29.

In March, we will have fun with the children's imaginations while we celebrate St. Patrick's Day. Then, the last two weeks we will have parent teacher conferences and Registration for our upcoming summer and fall sessions.

Wishing you a beautiful Spring! Lisa Clinton

GOD OF DELIVERANCE

A STUDY OF EXODUS 1-18

JEN WILKIN

A 10-SESSION STUDY BY JEN WILKIN

Join us for this verse-by-verse study of Exodus 1-18 to discover how Israel's story is our story: The same God who delivered Israel also delivers all those He loves from slavery to sin and from service to the pharaohs of this world. He lifts our eyes to the promised land He has prepared where we dwell with I AM and worship Him as the one true God.
