

Life in Christ, Vol. 68 Issue 4 April, 2024

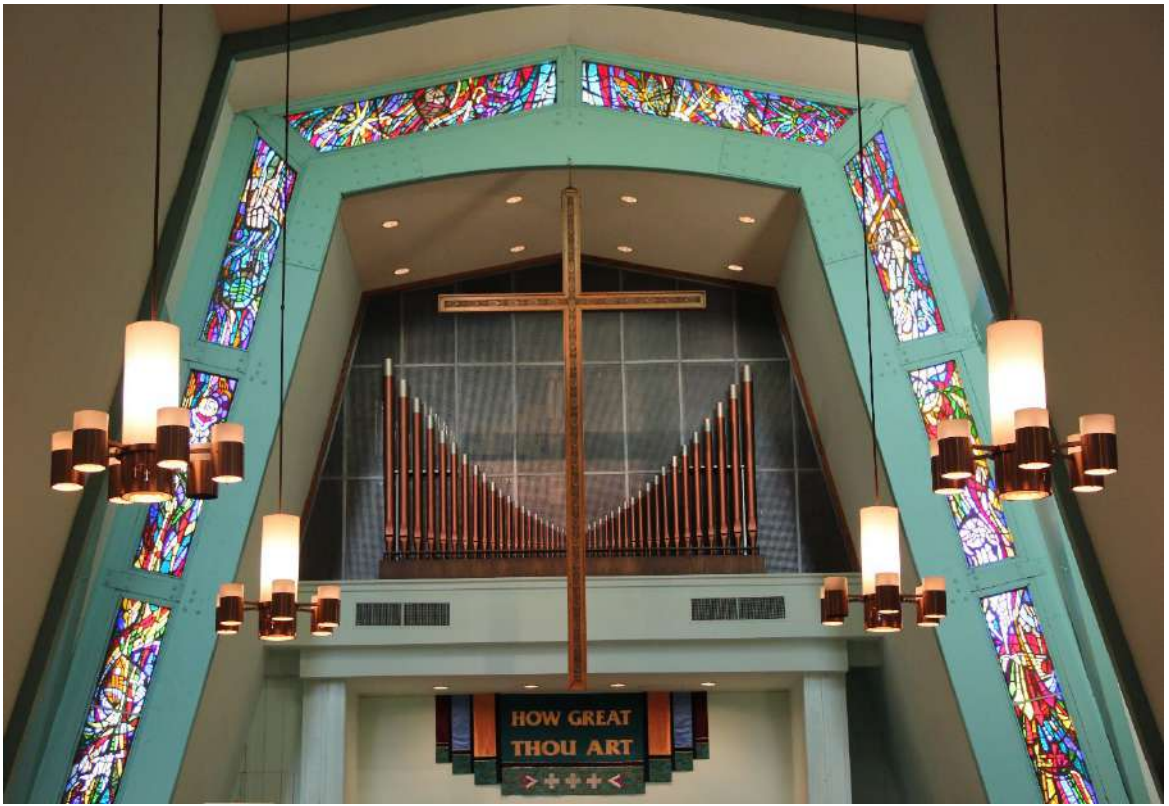

As a newbie here at Christ Lutheran, I have the opportunity to see this place with new eyes. Things that perhaps are all too familiar for you or have lost their novelty are brand new again to me. I find great joy in this. It affords me the opportunity to get to know you better as you share with me the things that you find near and dear, and vice versa, and to explore the parts of us that reveal the character of the very God we serve. It's truly a beautiful thing.

In my adventures sorting the plethora of files in my office, I discovered the following diagram. At first look, I wasn't quite sure what was before me. It had a lot of Christian buzz words like "baptism," "nativity," "trinity" and "resurrection," but wasn't labeled for anything in particular, but I wondered about the shape, surely, I had seen it before. A quick check in with Kim Croes revealed the purpose- a diagram of the pictures/stories that are depicted in each stained glass frame at the front of the Sanctuary.

Color me surprised- I had no idea that there were images embedded in these gorgeous panes. I had certainly seen the vibrant colors and the movement that the curved lines created, but not images. Upon seeing this diagram, I had to check it out for myself.

The following Sunday, I stared intently at the windows, as if straining for the mystery message in one of those old "magic eye" books of the 90s. And then, I saw it! A chalice! A baptismal font! A creche! It all seemed to come together in a way that it hadn't the last several weeks that I'd been here. I eagerly shared it with my husband Scott as we worked our way from pane to pane. Really...if you haven't already had the chance, or haven't of recent, I encourage you to take in the beauty, detail and intentionality in these images.

After some research in our church files, thanks Kim Croes, we discovered that these windows were installed in 1980 by Judson Studios, with whom we shared the process of design. Our files indicate that families came together to sponsor different windows as the whole church set out to create something beautiful together. The leadership hoped and trusted that this would enhance their worship life for years to come. And it has! We give thanks for these church planners, visionaries and stewards who helped this dream come to fruition and for which we benefit today.

It's amazing how something can change for you in almost an instant. One day, I didn't see it. And the next, I did.

By the time you read this, Lent is nearly over and Holy Week is likely underway. Easter morning brings a moment where all things change for those early disciples. Their teacher, their friend, their Lord- dead and gone just a few days before, and now, resurrected! Death does not have the final word. Everything has changed as life wins. As we experience the "new found grace" of the risen God, I pray that the familiarity of this story would not lessen its impact on you. Try to see with new eyes and experience anew, afresh the Easter message. He is risen, indeed. Alleluia!

All I know is we said, "Hello."

So dust off your highest hopes

All I know is pouring rain and everything has changed

All I know is a new found grace

All my days I'll know your face

All I know since yesterday is everything has changed

I just wanna know you better, know you better, know you better now

I just wanna know you, know you, know you

From the song "Everything Has Changed" by Taylor Swift ft. Ed Sheeran

Looking forward to getting to know you better, Christ Lutheran-

Pastor Nikki

Preschool News

We had our Auction, "A Night of Imagination" on March 8. We had 87 people in attendance. We enjoyed appetizers, cash bar, candy table, chocolate fountain, wine pull (30 bottles), 'mike tv' spin to win game, gumball toss, Violet's blueberries raffle (for $200 to A PCH Restaurant), golden egg raffle (for Total Wine & More Wine Tasting Class), 63 silent auction items, 14 teacher dates, 6 class projects, 4 live auction items (1st rows at Christmas Program and Graduation, Class Party/Date Night, and Private Concert and Naples Rib BBQ), 'Fund an Item' for a new stove, 50/50 raffle ($380 to the winner Michelle Tandoc) and we ended with a golden ticket prize. It was a lot of fun! Thank you to our emcee; Jeff Wilson, sponsors; Orellana Nursing Anesthesia Team and Wilson family, creators/decorations and wrapping baskets; Rachyl Theriault and Kim Croes, and everyone that supported us through donations and attending the event! We brought in a total of $23,883 with a profit of $17,120!

We celebrated St. Patrick's Day. This is always a fun day to play with the children's imaginations; building leprechaun traps, finding clues that the leprechauns have been around and finding a pot of gold! We also had parent teacher conferences. We gave parents the option of meeting in person or via Zoom. We had registration for current students and siblings for our upcoming Fall session. We will now register people from our waiting list. We also celebrated Easter on Fri 3/29. We had egg hunt followed by a picnic on the yard with families. We closed at 12:30pm and will be closed 4/1-4/5 for Spring Break.

We will celebrate Week of the Young Child April 22nd-26th. We kick off the week with a special Preschool Sunday worship on April 21st. Our theme for the week will be "Celebrating through the Senses". The daily themes will be Music Monday (Sound), Tactile Tuesday (Touch), Wacky Wednesday (Smell), Artsy Thursday (Sight), and Family Friday (Taste). Each day will be full of fun activities like a goop pool, mystery scented playdough, rainbow water xylophone, and more! This is always an exciting and fun week to celebrate young children.

Wishing you a beautiful Spring!

Lisa Clinton

Living the Beatitudes

The Way to a Most Excellent Life

Discernment Instead of Judgement

Correction instead of Punishment

Religion and Science

Be Kind
To Everyone

Cultural change expert Gary L. Engstrom presents strategies that free you from the oppressive tendencies that have corrupted our culture, thus allowing you to simplify your life.

In Living the Beatitudes, you learn to:

- Identify and replace divisive behaviors (judging and punishing) with uniting behaviors (discerning and correcting).
- Replace energy-wasting and self-destructive negative emotions with the uplifting, healing and freeing emotions of forgiveness and mercy.
- Free yourself from self-limiting beliefs that close you off from others and God, to expansive beliefs that open you up to others and God.
- Claim your uniqueness and cherish the God-given uniqueness of others.
- Unify with others in a patchwork of diversity to accomplish great things!

Living the Beatitudes helps you navigate life in communion with others; "Hey, life is difficult, let's help each other out!"

Dear Friends at Christ Lutheran Church in Long Beach,

I wanted to take a moment to express our deepest gratitude for your support of our Annual Easter Celebration this past weekend.

Despite the rainy weather, families began arriving as early as 9 am, eager to participate in our event scheduled to start at 10 am. Witnessing the dedication of these families, braving the rain to attend our celebration, was truly inspiring for our entire team of staff and volunteers.

In light of the weather conditions, we made the decision to modify the event, ensuring the safety and comfort of our guests. Regrettably, we had to cancel the arts and crafts activities and the bouncy house for the children due to safety concerns.

We provided lunch, goodie bags, groceries, hygiene kits, and Northgate Market gift cards to go, ensuring that the spirit of Easter and community support remained strong despite the challenges.

Thanks to your financial contributions and volunteers (Ron Nelson, Steve Howard, Andrea Joseph, DJ Trujillo, & Claudia Fitzpatrick) who assisted us with sorting and preparing Easter goodie bags, we were able to assist 55 families during this event, providing them with essential resources and a sense of community during these challenging times.

Your commitment to our mission makes events like these possible, and we are truly grateful for your partnership. Together, we are making a positive impact in the lives of families in our community.

Once again, thank you for your generosity and support. We look forward to continuing our work together and making a difference in the lives of those we serve.

Happy Palm
